BLACKQUILL

1978

DEDICATION

The class of 1978 is pleased to dedicate this year's BLACKQUILL to Mr. Patrick Kovar. Mr. Kovar has taught English and speech classes in Blackduck for the past four years. In addition to his teaching duties, he is the coach of the declamation team, the golf team and a junior class advisor.

Mr. Kovar is a graduate of DeLaSalle High School in Minneapolis, and received a B.A. degree from the University of Colorado and his B.S. degree from Bemidji State University. Prior to coming to Blackduck, he worked as a graduate assistant at Bemidji State.

Mr. Kovar and his wife, Marie, live in Hines and have one son, Zachary, age six months.

A high-contrast silhouette of a graduate wearing a mortarboard cap, shown in profile facing right. The silhouette is solid black against a light, textured background. The cap's tassel is visible, hanging down. The background has a grainy, stippled texture, particularly on the right side.

IN MEMORIAM

Remember me when I am gone away, gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand, nor I half turning go, yet turning stay.
Remember me when no longer day by day, you tell me of our future that you planned;
Only remember me, you understand it will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while and afterwards remember, do not grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave a vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile than that you should remember and be sad.

The class of 1978 fondly remembers Jody Stenson who passed away in the fall of our Sophomore year.

1978 1988 PROPHECIES

Ron Adams--is still trying to get through basic training.

Wendy Anderson--just received her Master's degree in sociology and has figured out why she spent so much time in the Mouse Nest.

Steve Baazard--is still trying to program the computer so he can be matched up with the Bionic Woman.

Diane Bauer--just bought a ranch in Texas and named it after her old stomping grounds, the C&A Corral.

Joe Benson--is in a padded room in Fergus Falls still muttering, "How did he pin me?"

Mike Benson--is now the lookout tower for the Blackduck Airport.

Pam Bogart--is now the watergirl for the Portland Trailblazers and in her spare time she polishes her high school medals.

Tim Bowman--is the proud owner of Boner's drug store in downtown Blackduck. Guess what he specializes in?

Kim Brooks--is the warden at Osh Kosh Prison so she can keep tabs on her friends.

Brenda Chamness--has just opened her first fashion boutique in downtown Blackduck. Her time off is spent with a bunch of little loggers.

Jill Charles--now that she is into criminal justice, has declared Nebish illegal to minors.

Bill Cheney--goes to the cities to look at the old homestead but still comes back to good old Blackduck.

Bob Corne--is still trying to get Monica Mystic to go to Montana with him.

Debbie Corner--ten years ago she started a family and she hasn't stopped yet.

Chris Dirkes--is still smoking across from the school to bring back the good old days.

Matt Dockendorf--is still trying to get Mr. Kovar to pass him so he can get his diploma.

Jim Downey--has opened a new restaurant at Benjamin Lake and he switches from being a cook to being a bouy.

Peter Dremmel--followed in his father's footsteps and is the wrestling coach at Blackduck High.

Kathy Dunkley--is a nurse at Blackduck General Hospital.

Dan Eckstrom--is still the holder of the greatest person award in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Kevin Erpelding--is still finding excuses for not drinking.

Rhonda Ferdig--is still attending the Sunday car races regularly.

Rohn Ferdig--has given up trying to get rid of a certain someone and has married her.

Cherlene Fineday--is the Indian counselor at BHS and also makes the Indian Club patches for the jackets.

Alan Florey--is still trying to teach Blackduck his 'hip' language which he learned from his main dude in the cities, and he still talks about the Northhome game.

Warren Floura--now has a fleet of skidders and plans to pull the Blackduck Liquor Store into his back forty.

Rick Gabrelcik--is still making his regular cruises from Dora Lake into Blackduck.

Lisa Gross--is now Diane Bauer's right-hand gal at the C&A Corral.

Sandy Gustafson--is still trying to get in before her curfew so the car doesn't turn into a grape. (Otherwise her dad will become very sour, get it!?)

Jim Hamlin--gets a bravery medal in the Army for being the best cook and then his food turns out to be a flop.

Melissa Hayes--is still laughing at the jokes she never got at BHS during third hour.

Sue Heacock--has become an airline stewardess so she could get up in the world.

Deb Heath--is now teaching business courses at good old BHS in place of Mr. Free because she knows shorthand.

Kelly Hendrickson--is now a man of the cloth and preaches strongly against liquor, women and wild times.

Tom Hentges--is now a U.S. Senator fighting for the farmers!

Loveda Hochstetler--the college professors have found out why she gets such good grades: crib sheets under her cap.

Rob Holmgren--has finally come back to the real world.

Lily Johnson & Marla Morris--are now strippers at the Funkley Bar with Pete Stomberg as their manager.

Dwight Kalvig--has succeeded in taking over his Dad's business but still can't figure out how to do the new tax forms.

Jil Kerth--has finally found out how to get rid of the "Itch".

Eddie Kile--is still mad because Warren got the liquor store.

Pete Kilness--owns his own computer and is planning out his harems.

Luther Klug--has become blood relatives with the black people and is presently a Baptist preacher in Alabama.

Lynn Larson--is a professional majorette with much understanding for those who drop their batons.

Monica Lucy--has been married for quite a few years and is still touring the country in her hubby's black Trans Am.

Dawn Jenson--just got married.

Loretta McFadden--has found a true love in Texas and is bouncing from her sister's place to Diane's C&A Corral.

Sherry Magoon-- is taking bookings for babysitters on Saturday nights.

Monica Mystic--is now happily married with four little Fuzzlies and Fuzzettes.

Tammy Mystic--is with the rest of the crowd in Alaska.

Lynn Nagel--as a result of her parking days, now has five kids in the back seat.

Deb Paine--has finally learned to parallel park without $50.00 worth of damages.

Tim Pomp--his next door neighbors are now his in-laws - he finally got a date with the girl next door.

Walter Wing--is still faithful as ever to the volleyball team and hitchhikes to all the away games.

Les Mystic--won a gold medal in the Olympics for his wrestling ability.

Dave Morris--is now a test pilot for Cox model airplane company with Jim Downey as his co-pilot.

Donna Nagel--after going to school and becoming a legal secretaty, married her boss and became the boss.

Paul Nelson--is raising ladybugs and mushrooms in Southeastern Bolivia.

Trisha Niskanen--and her sweetheart have traveled the world over and found out that there is no place like home.

Becky Oas--holds the world's record for non-stop talking.

Sandy Olsfson--is now the permanent garbage disposal at the Blackduck Bakery.

Jayson Pratt--is still lurking in the shadows trying to crack the quack.

Judy Ropp--is the first woman minister in her church.

Lori Schuemann--has just been named lead nurse in the men's ward, a place where she will be the happiest.

Joy Smith--is now the new detective at BHS and is finding all the lost admit slips.

Renell Smith--has finally thought for a smart answer to Mr. Kovar's cuts - too bad Renell, you're too late.

Donnis Solberg--still has her secret trips to the restroom, which her husband, she says, knows nothing about.

Vicky Sorheim--is still deeply involved in her art - at a nudist colony.

Paul Spencer--is now a famous painter and shows his works at the Guggenheim Art Gallery in New York City.

Pete Stomberg--has moved up in the world - instead of being the Los Angeles Lakers water boy, he is now their star bench warmer. Alright, Pete!

Cindy Theisen--is enjoying her expensive steak dinner with Dwight Kalvig and his wife. Dwight lost the bet only four months before he would have had the dinner.

Cheri Tisland--is now married, and thanks to the herd she started in high school, they have a prosperous farm - in more ways than one.

Brian Tjepkes--is the first person who succeeded in making a living on the moon - by farming.

Bob Tubbs--is still trying to bring back his high school days by flying high.

Kevin Wentworth--is now teaching classes for those who want to relax. After being such an authority on losing contact with reality, he decided it wouldn't hurt to make money while he did it.

Kim Yerbich--is now a wrestling coach at BHS and practices her favorite holds on all the wrestlers.

Dave Morris, Joe Benson, Tim Bowman, Cindy Theisen and Kathy Dunkley--will finally make that big ski trip to Vail, Colorado. Oh, yes, they all own their equipment now! No more long lines for rentals.
